Manfred was one of the very few students chosen to come to America, thru the courtesy of National Grange.

He came from Oberschule fuer Jungen (High School) Backnang, Germany.

He is here for a period of a year, from August 1952, to August 1953.

The Senior Class has enjoyed having him in their classroom and we hope he will remember his stay in Marathon, and will someday return to America.

To exchange student Manfred Schick, this book is proudly dedicated. His fine character and exemplary conduct have been an inspiration for all to witness. We are fortunate that he was able to spend his Senior year with us at Marathon Central School.

FORWARD

Every fourth year in the United States is election year. So 1952 brings the usual taking of sides and election bets. November's election resulted in a new Republican president, Dwight D. Eisenhower, once a five-star general in the United States Army.

Nineteen hundred and fifty-three promises our Seniors graduating this year a new and better life outside of the school. As a result of the 1952 election, we are hopeful of a good many changes in the United States; we are hopeful that the Republicans will clear up the situation abroad and straighten things out at home.

The election year shows changes in the school, not just in the appearance of the school, but in its records and achievements. The class of 1953 has a record of good scholastic attainment, sportsmanship and citizenship. They have contributed much to the Marathon Central High School.

We hope that the future is kind to our Seniors. We hope they remember the 1952-53 election year when, as voters and office-holders, they look back and remember the old school days.

We cannot tell what will happen in the future as a result of the election year but we trust in God and government.

ALMA MATER

Here the school of Marathon
Works the live long day
Truly we shall gain bright laurels
On our upward way.

CHORUS:

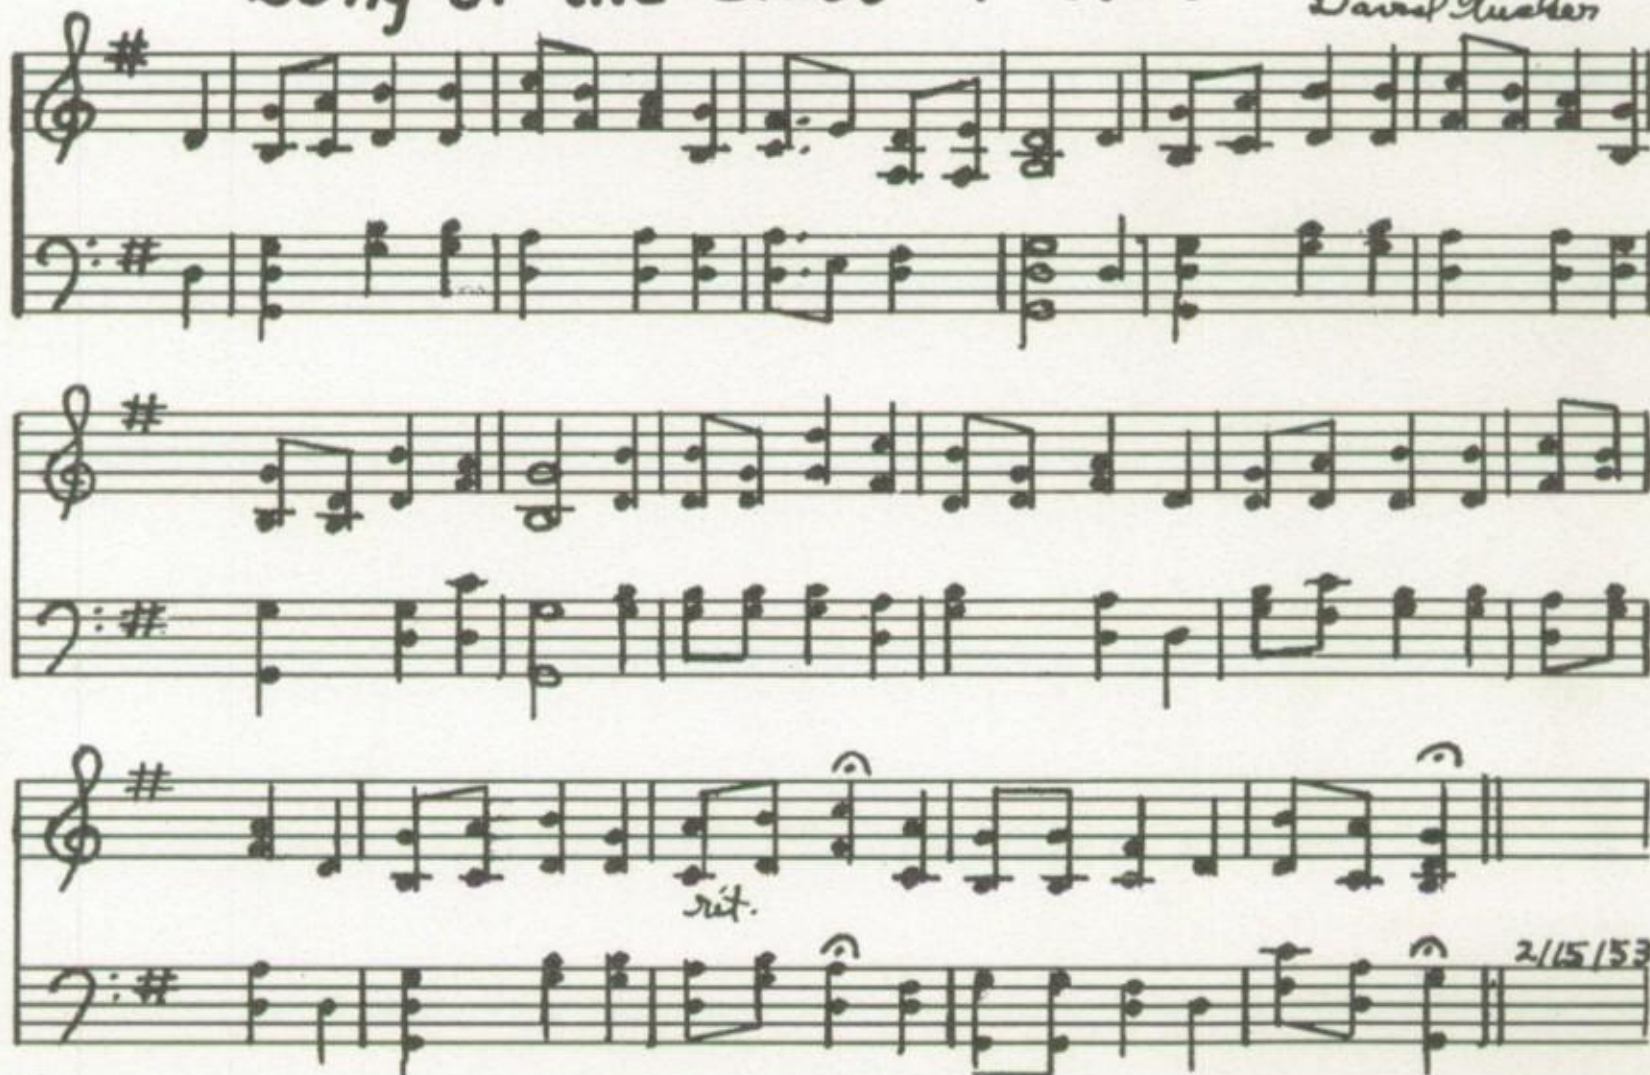

School we love, Marathon, love for aye,
Oh Marathon for thee
Oh may we be true and loyal
To thy memory

As the years of life are passing,
Dark our paths may be
Still the ray of faith and love
Shall linger long on thee.

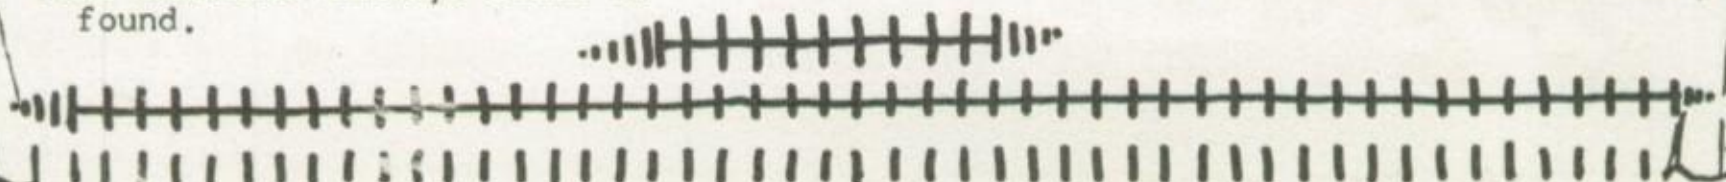

Song of the Class of 1953

David Tucker

O' Marathon High we leave you now
And on lifes road we go.
Our lessons learned, our works to show; that we may rise or fall
We sadly leave your hallowed walls
To find our place along lifes road.
We pray that in the hearts of all
Your memories allways shall be found.

We studied hard for twelve long years
And how we hate to go.
Far gone will be our pleasures here
And all our friends so dear.
But now our goals in life we sight,
No parting tear will we now shed.
In future years we'll not loose sight
Of happy schooldays we spent here.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1949, a group of enthusiastic boys and girls joined two parties under the leadership of Mrs. Mudge and Mrs. Peters, Campaign managers. Both of these parties were called Freshmen, but were divided into separate classes. We were looking forward to four years of vigorous campaigning for the title of graduates. During this year we raised money by having a booth at the Senior Carnival. For relaxation we engaged in a picnic on Moon Hill.

Although we survived our first year with Marathon Central as our headquarters, we decided in 1950 to combine our parties into one, for the benefit of all concerned. This new party consisting of 40 members, was called Sophomores, and we elected Mr. Arnold as our campaign manager for the next three years. We also elected officers to help keep the party on the Bandwagon. They were as follows: president-David Tucker, vice-president-Marilyn Holmes, secretary-Norma Watros, treasurer-John Carroll, Student Council representatives-Joan Pickard and Mary Keller. For raising money we again had a booth at the Senior Carnival and held a square dance on April 6 with the Sunset Serenaders furnishing the music.

The next year, 1951, we changed our party name to Juniors. Our membership decreased to 34 members, but the bulk of the party remained on the Bandwagon. We elected new officers to see us through the Junior year. They were: president-Norma Watros, vice-president-Jack Schwencke, secretary-Mary Keller, treasurer-Barbara Ryan, Student Council representatives-Marilyn Holmes and Gus Nowalk. As we were getting a little tired of campaigning we decided to have a picnic at Griener's, on October 23. After that we felt quite rested and got to work! We made money by having a booth at the Senior Carnival, selling fruit cakes, and having a Junior Prom. At the Prom, Joan Pickard and Paul McMahon were crowned King and Queen. Marilyn Holmes, Carl Edmonds, Norma Watros, Jack Schwencke, Barbara Ryan, and Gus Nowalk were chosen for attendants. In April we started a minor campaign for parts in the play "A Case of Springtime". This campaign produced riotous results and we were quite pleased. To end our year as the Junior Party of MCS, we held a picnic at Lily Lake.

When we returned to the premises of our recent escapades as Freshmen, Sophomore, and Junior Parties, we decided to call our fourth and last party the Senior Party. This year our party consisted of 31 members. International relations being uppermost in the minds of all concerned, we were pleased to discover that we were honored with a foreign diplomat from Germany. We found his name to be Manfred Schick and that he would spend the year with us as an exchange student.

Soon after our year started, Norma Watros took office for another term as president ably assisted again by Veep Jack Schwencke. We elected Shirley Jones-secretary, John Carroll-treasurer and Student Council representatives-Carl Edmonds and Helen Lacy.

As this was our last year of campaigning for the title of Graduates, we started out with a bang by holding our own Senior Carnival. After this successful venture, we had another minor campaign for parts for our Senior play "My Cousin from Texas". We held this play December 13, 1952. Then we had something new, a circus! The final minor campaigns of our Senior party were our square dance, Senior Ball and workday.

Now quite sure we would be elected to the title of graduates, we wanted to discover how a big government operates so we voted to climax our four years by a trip to Washington. Soon after our trip was over we were finally elected. We received our diplomas and the title of Graduates!

CLASS WILL

Parents and Friends - This being almost the end of a very successful election year, we wish to thank you all for bestowing on us the title of Graduates for which we have campaigned these past four years. Being of politically speaking "sound mind and body", we wish to hereby issue our campaign promises for the coming years.

To the Freshmen	We promise to leave our four wonderful years in high school. Treat them gently!
To the Sophomores	We leave our Jr. play. Hope you do as well as we did!
To the Juniors	We leave our undying love for Shakespeare. With that and a little money making ability you should do quite nicely as seniors.
To the Teachers	We leave memories of our love for books, and thanks for helping us wade through them to achieve our goal.
To our Principal	We give sincere appreciation for letting us make the most of our four years here at M.C.S.
To the Board of Education	Thanks so much for making Marathon Central a more wonderful school. We are glad we could graduate from here.
To our Advisor	To Mr. Arnold we leave our quiet ways. We hope your next class will be as cooperative as we have been.

Thus having given these seven major promises, each senior wishes to have these personal promises recorded:

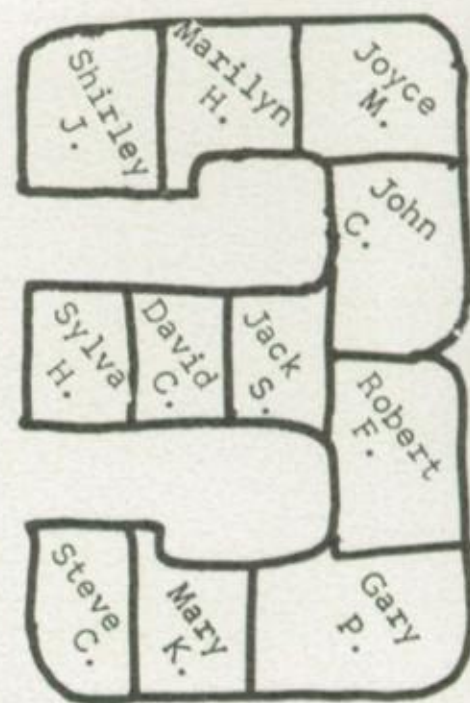

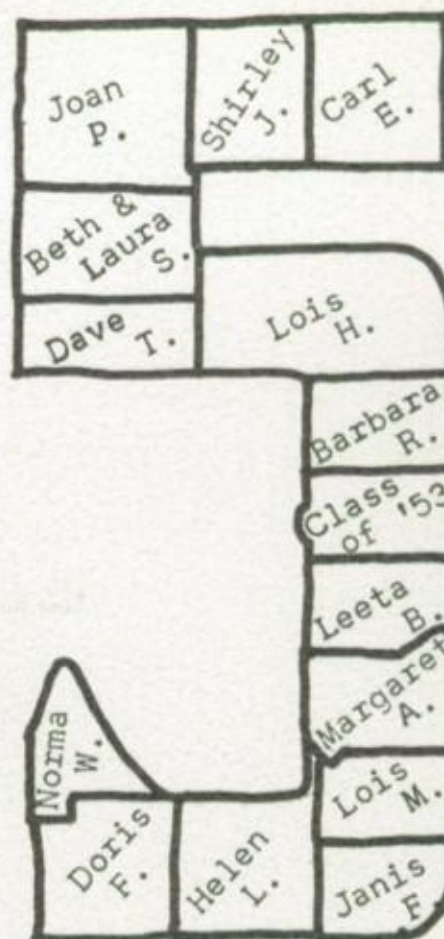

Margaret Atwood	Marg leaves her punctuality to Jack Wainwright.
Leeta Beach	Leeta leaves her salesmanship to the Juniors.
David Cameron	Dave leaves his freckles to Pat Pringle.
John Carroll	John leaves his "Irish temper" to Mr. McMahon.
George Chevalier	George leaves his knack for studying to Paul Couch.
Stephen Clough	Steve leaves his quiet ways to Dickie Pendell.
Carl Edmonds	Carl leaves his popularity to Scott Hollander.
Robert Fleming	Bob leaves his coyness to Mounsey Little.
Janis Froebel	Jan leaves her knowledge of men to Sue Diamond.
Doris Fuller	Doris leaves her ear for music to Joe Burk.
Mary Gardner	Mary leaves her job in the Cafeteria, washing pots and pans, to the next ambitious person.
Lois Hackett	Lois wills her future marriage plans to Janet and Corky.
Sylva Hallock	Sylva Leaves her art ability to Mrs. Peters. Now you can draw those diagrams!
Norman Harvey	Norm reserves his two-some spot in the hall to Jack and Alice.
Marilyn Holmes	Marilyn leaves her Varsity cheerleading uniform to any lucky individual having her ability.
Charles Honour	Charlie leaves his seat in the Senior Homeroom to anyone who likes to relax.
Shirley Jones	Shirley leaves her ability to sleep through English class to the next one to sit in her seat. Run kids!
Mary Keller	Mary leaves her well-known giggle to Vivian Ives.
Helen Lacy	Helen leaves her first chair in the flute section to Mary Smith.
Joyce Maycumber	Joyce leaves her sparkling Pepsodent smile to Vivian Fritts.
Lois Maycumber	Lois leaves the Driver Training Car in one piece!
Paul McMahon	Paul leaves his athletic ability to Keith Harvey.
Gus Nowalk	Gus leaves his numerous questions and jokes to Mr. Askew.
Gary Padbury	Gary leaves his height to George Strang.
Joan Pickard	Joan leaves her slim waistline to Marie Pease.
Barbara Ryan	Barbie leaves the checking booth to anyone who can hold it up.
Jack Schwencke	Jack leaves his way with girls to Keith Jennison.
Manfred Schick	Manfred leaves his love for America to everyone, everywhere.
Beth Stone	Beth Leaves her quiet manner to Shirley Cook.
Laura Stone	Laura leaves her jolly personality to Sandra King.
David Tucker	David leaves his cello to anyone big enough to carry it.
Norma Watros	Norma leaves her wonderful sense of humor to Shirley Jones, Jr.

PROPHECY

Class of 1953

November 1961; The Class of 1953 is seen holding their election year caucus. During the banquet, as each is talking, we discover what each Senior has accomplished in the last eight years.

- Margaret Atwood-We see you a wise mother with three sets of twins.
Leeta Beach-We hear you are a working mother combining a career and marriage very well.
David Cameron-We see you working your farm; but it doesn't look like David. Oh, the sun has bleached your hair blonde!
John Carroll-We see you as a rich playboy, having been engaged five times, and in the process of another entanglement.
George Chevalier-We hear you have settled in Texas and see you riding your horse. You should feel at home with that drawl.
Stephen Clough-We see you accepting the blue ribbon for that prize corn. That's hard to get when you're farming in Kansas.
Carl Edmonds-We see you driving those tractor trailers from New York to California. Too bad you don't stop in Hollywood.
Robert Fleming-We hear you are farming but also raising prize Irishmen.
Janis Froebel-We see you on a Florida beach, modeling bathing suits for Vogue Magazine.
Doris Fuller-We see you as a very good secretary, sitting on the boss's lap, diligently taking oral dictation.
Mary Gardner-We see you as a secretary in a Recruiting Office. (Wonder Why?)
Lois Hackett-We hear you are finding it pretty hard combining marriage, career and motherhood.
Norman Harvey-We see you lecturing at a meeting and giving those Witty remarks.
Marilyn Holmes-We see you married to the best hono(u)r student in school.
Charles Honour-We see you taking your ho(l)mes with you wherever you go.
Shirley Jones-We see you happily married to "Dinty", raising all those little top sergeants.
Mary Keller-We see you as an R.N. Superintendent of Nurses at Crouse Irving Hospital. That's a pretty swanky (Schwenke) place, Mary.
Helen Lacy-Is that Lab Technician job paying well?
Joyce Maycumber-We see you working as a secretary, but on Wednesday nights you are teaching Adult Drivers Training.
Lois Maycumber-We see you married to the manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers and well on the way to raising a baseball team.
Paul McMahon-We see that you have found there is a lot of slate(r) on your farm.
Gus Nowalk-We hear that you have found gold on your claim. Spending any of it?
Gary Padbury-We see you as manager of Macy's Department Store in New York.
Joan Pickard-We see you up in the clouds, as you always were, but this time as an airplane stewardess.
Barbara Ryan-We hear you are going to replace your mother as a nurse of the school.
Jack Schwenke-We hear you are looking for a different job. What's the matter, didn't she like farming?
Manfred Schick-We see you teaching the U. S. way of farming in Germany. Your own farm has proved very successful.
Elizabeth Stone-We see you as a Secretary working for the Six-Footer's Club of New York.
Laura Stone-We see you as a nurse in the Naval Hospital in California. Is that where he's supposed to be?
David Tucker-We see you conducting your own orchestra. You know it's your debut on television. You can't see the musicians? Try cutting that long hair.
Norma Watros-We see you being what? Oh, a mother and music teacher on the side. Aren't car's selling good?
Sylva Hallock-We see you have a job creating fashions for Charm Magazine.

CLASS OF '53

We are the class of '53
Who are so very melancholy
In leaving this school of ours behind
To see what else life has to find.
As we think back to those early times
When we were learning nursery-rhymes
The times that we would start to fool
And forget about the golden-rule.

The paper wads would usually zoom,
Erasers be thrown around the room.
It seemed the day would never end
Doing work in books the school would lend.
The things you know you should have done-
But then you'd rather have some fun.
But now it all has all gone past,
And we have reached our goal at last.

The Juniors started their year by electing new officers. They are: president, Keith Jennison; vice president, Bernita Davis; secretary, Barbara Plattner; treasurer, Linda Parker and student council representatives, Charles Mc Evoy and Sherry Hill.

The main event of the year for the Juniors was their "Snow Ball", or Junior Prom, at which Sandra Butler was voted queen and Charles Mc Evoy, king. Under the guidance of Miss Curtis, they also sold fruit cakes, sponsored three booths at the Senior Carnival, and prepared a dinner for the 1st. Supervisory District Teachers Association. The Juniors also worked hard on their play, a mystery-comedy, which is presented in May. One of the main attractions of the year was the Junior Square Dance.

With all these successful ventures behind them, the Juniors can hope to add to their laurels during their Senior year.

JUNIORS AND SOPHOMORES.

The Class of 1955 is at last united into one large group, consisting of 52 students, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Essom. They elected the following officers for this year: president, Kenniston Bleck; vice president Barbara Froebel; secretary, Marlene Murphy; treasurer, Gordon Brown; students council representatives, Norma Kirchner, Jack Wainwright. The Sophomores participated in the annual Senior Carnival and the school fair. They also put on a round and square dance April 24th. Under Mrs. Essom's guidance, the Sophomore Class can look forward to a successful Junior Year, after having a wonderful Sophomore year.

NURSES

The Senior Nurses Club this year has taken up the topic of First Aid and has been doing some work on it at each meeting. Lately Mrs. Ryan has been showing us how to test eyes, so that we can help her with the grades. Before the end of the year we hope to make a trip to one of the hospitals.

You'll Be Surprised At How Much You Save At

VICTORY

So Give Your Budget
A Break...Shop Your Victory Store Regularly

Those who do their shopping here... week after week...find savings mount up to something really worth while.
They believe prices are LOWER in general at Victory. They don't expect to save on every item...nor make a huge saving on any one item...but in the long run the many little savings add up to a BIG SAVING. There's enough left over to buy something else that is needed.
